

June 2025

Sunday Monday Tuesday Wednesday Thursday Friday Saturday

All Pennsylvania certified child care programs must meet minimum health and safety requirements to operate. Kick off June's National Safety Month with reviewing safety practices in your early learning program.

1	2 Share June's Learning is Everywhere newsletter with families*	3 Learn how culture can impact mental health*	4 10 effective Developmentally Appropriate Practice Teaching Strategies	5 Build a sense of place in the Early Childhood Classroom*	6 Learn about PA's Career Pathways on Natl. Higher Ed Day	7
8	9 Learn tips for fostering connections and encouraging children.*	10 Talk with families about their child's mental health.*	11 Learn about June's Strawberry moon	12 Help families & staff build resilience for themselves & their children*	13 Explore how ECE staff support children's social emotional health*	14
15	16 Share with families OCDEL's Summer Learning & Literacy Road Trip*	17 Provide networking and mentoring opportunities for families*	18 Host a PA One Book family night. Read the book, then do activities.*	19 Discover strategies to support positive peer interaction*	20 First Day of Summer. Celebrate with a book!	21
22	23 Get tools to develop empathy to build warm, inclusive classrooms*	24 Encourage staff to try the Reflective Checklist for Teaching Practices*	25 Build relationships with community and referral agencies*	26 Use MyPlate to build a balanced meal for children.	27 Explore resources to learn key aspects of preschool learning environments.	28
29	30 Ensure staff are subscribed to newsletters to stay informed.	DYK child care staff and providers can contact their local Early Childhood Education Professional Development Organizations (ECE PDOs) for access to free, Pennsylvania Quality Assurance System (POAS) approved, Pediatric First Aid and Pediatric CPR training.

*Recommendations supporting the Pennsylvania Family Engagement Framework.