JANUARY 2026 Activities for Early Learning Staff

****

***

****

*****

****

****

***

***

****

***

** **

***

***

| SUNDAY | MÖNDAY  |  TUESDAY   | WEDNESDAŸ  | THURSDAY   | FRIDAY    | SATURDA                      |
|--------|---|--|--|--|---|------------------------------|
| guida: | ry is National Mentoring Mornice and support as we make more about the impact of                              | our way through the easy   |  | New Year's Day HAPPY NEW YEAR!   | Share the January Learning is Everywhere newsletter for activities families can do at home.*                      | Learn about Janua Wolf Moon. |
|        | Make a Jan Brett inspired winter art craft.   | National Bird Day Try the Collaborative Bird House build activity and read the 2023 PA One Book, Mel Fell by Corey R. Tabor. | 7 Talk about the winter season and how it differs from other seasons.                 | Make frozen suncatchers from found items in nature.  | Select a book or two to read from the from 10 Awesome Books About Winter List.                                    | 10                           |
|        | Invite school district personnel to review kindergarten registration and attendance policies with families. * | Play a social-emotional game withchildren & share thegame with families sothey can play, too.*               | Bring snow inside. What words can describe the snow? What happens when it's inside too long? | Read If You Were a  Penguin by Wendall &  Florence Minor, then  create hatching paper plate penguin chick puppets. | Explore different animal tracks and talk about what animals make the tracks and how.                              | 17                           |
| 8      | 19 Martin Luther King, Jr. Day  | Use a flashlight and shine it on the wall. Encourage children to use their hands to make shadows.                            | Create Calm-Down Jars and talk with children about different ways notice emotions and relax. | Make tissue paper art with snow (or water, if there's no snow!).                                     | 23 National Pie Day  Create a pie with paper and talk about mathematical terms like whole, half, and one-quarter. | 24                           |
|        | Help children identify opposites in the classroom.  | Teach children a new outdoor game.  | Create a sensory bin for sensory play.   | Reach out to local Kindergarten teachers. Plan a spring classroom visit for transitioning preschoolers.*           | 30 Provide a variety of ways for family members to share feedback related to their experiences.*                  | 31                    |